

In the Biblical Museum of Canada you will watch with awe how the Reformation became distinct from the materialistic spirit of the Renaissance and inspired biblical trends in education, science and social change. You might find it surprising to see that founders of most scientific disciplines were Bible believing scholars.

Judeo-Christian Founders or Primary Developers of some of the Scientific Disciplines

